

Kindergarten Weekly News

November 16th-20th

- Read Aloud (books we read in class).
Families One And All, 10 Fat Turkey's,
The Great Turkey Rescue and A Turkey for Thanksgiving!

We also reviewed fiction vs. non fiction

- Shared Reading (Songs or Poems we recite together) "Funny Bird"
- Writer's Workshop (children write independently). We worked on our "Brown" books, wrote sentences about what were thankful for and wrote sentences describing the turkey's we made with our families which are displayed in our hall way! Check them out when you get a chance!
- Interactive Writing: We worked on writing the color words for a graph we are making.
- Words for the week (words we put on our word wall) "am" "car"

- Everyday Math: Our graph for the month is "weather" each day the children have to determine if it's warm, chilly, or very cold outside. Chilly days are catching up to Warm days! We played the train game using dice and made a favorite color graph. Social Studies and Science: Our Theme for this week is "Meet My Family". Vocabulary words for this week were: food, grandparent, and together

Specials for next week:

Monday- Computers

Tuesday- Phys. Ed and Turkey Tea (book orders are due!)

Wednesday- No School

Thursday- No School ----Happy Turkey Day

Friday- No School

Up-coming Events:

Turkey Tea: November 24th at 1:45pm in our classroom. The children will sing songs, recite poems, and do a little dancing! All parents are welcome to attend. We will have refreshments afterward.

* please look for dice that may have snuck into pockets this week. We are missing quite a few.
